

The Literary Club (TLC) – FAST-NUCES Karachi

Q: What is TLC at FAST-NUCES Karachi?

A: The Literary Club (TLC) is one of the most active and dynamic societies at FAST-NUCES Karachi. It serves as a platform for students to express themselves through literature, public speaking, and cultural engagement, fostering a vibrant community of thinkers and creators.

Q: When was TLC established?

A: While the exact founding date of TLC is not publicly documented, the club has been actively organizing events and fostering literary appreciation among students for several years.

TLC Events and Activities

Q: What is The Great Debate (TGD)?

A: The Great Debate (TGD) is TLC's flagship annual inter-university debating competition. Recognized as one of the most prominent events at FAST-NUCES, TGD provides a platform for young orators across Karachi to showcase their talent.

Q: What was a recent event organized by TLC?

A: Recently, TLC organized 'The Wisdom of Ali' session, led by Maulana Kumail Mehdavi. The session was a resounding success, bringing the university community together to explore the rich legacy of Imam Ali, gaining valuable insights into his wisdom, compassion, and leadership.

Q: Does TLC engage in community service?

A: Yes, TLC actively participates in community service initiatives. For instance, students from FAST-NUCES Karachi Campus spent a heartwarming day at Dar ul Sukun, sharing joy, compassion, and unforgettable moments, demonstrating their commitment to social responsibility.

Q: What other events has TLC organized?

A: TLC has organized various events, including the Eid Extravaganza, which featured heartwarming stories, delectable buffet delights, and unforgettable jamming sessions, providing students with opportunities to celebrate and engage in cultural festivities.

TLC Membership and Participation

Q: How can students become members of TLC?

A: TLC conducts membership inductions periodically. Interested students are encouraged to follow TLC's official social media pages for updates on future inductions.

Q: How can students stay updated on TLC's activities?

A: Students can follow TLC's official social media pages for the latest updates:

- Facebook: TLC - The Literary Club FAST NU

These platforms provide information on upcoming events, registration details, and opportunities to engage with the literary community at FAST-NUCES Karachi.